Open Discussion for the "Good of the County

Magistrate Bobby Young reminded the listening audience that Tuesday, May 20th is the primary election and that he would like to encourage everyone to vote.

Magistrate Wanda Hammons stated that she was honored to attend the "hammer and peg" Ceremony for the Ark Encounter and is excited about new businesses in the City of Dry Ridge. She also stated that it was good to see Steve Tatum back to work after his heart surgery and also Ronnie Kinman, another Road Department employee who has been off work after having shoulder surgery. She also thanked Camden Webster for filling in admirably for Steve Tatum while he recuperated. She stated that Derby Day was great and thanked everyone involved for the hard work.

Magistrate Richard Austin stated that Storme did an excellent job and the parade was well attended and the politicians were as well accepted as any time he could remember. He then went on to say that the free candy they handed out liberally may have contributed to that feeling of acceptance.

Magistrate Hammons then mentioned the vegetable garden and Judge Link stated that the garden is next to the Road Department and his plowed and if anyone would like to adopt a row or plant some vegetables then let our office know. It is also a good way to teach children about growing vegetables.
